Cape Cod is still jout off, and with the restoration of communication there it is feared that a tale of marine dis-

The three-masted schooner Nantaska was hurled ashore at Scituate, and prob; ably will be a total wreck. Volunteer life savers, with the breeches buoy, rescued her crew of ten men. With a cargo of lumber she was bound for Boston from North Carolina.

The schooner Belle Halliday is ashore at Brant Point, exposed to the fury of the sea. The fate of her crew s unknown, but it is believed that they are been rescued. She is from Philadelphia loaded with railroad iron.

On the rocky shores of Martha's Vineyard waterlogged schooners are being swept by every sea. They are the A. K. McLean, a British vessel, bound from Perth Amboy to Halifax, and the Steaington, Maine, schooner Mand Seward, Port Reading for Provi-dence. The crews have been taken off

NEW YORK Dec 27 -The New York Stock Exchange has an investigation on its hands. Common stock of the Rock Island company rose 311 points almost immediately after the opening today; then, even more suddenly, dropped to 50. Thereby hangs a mystery, or a flasco, or something that the governors of the stock exchange will try to sift to the bottom. At the close of today's session the gov ernors quickly held a conference, and it was announced that a special investigathe for the establishment of a day trade thou had been instituted. Francis Lande by Superintendent H. B. Peairs to-Earnes, former president of the exchange J. T. Atterbury and Ernest Groesbeck were appointed to conduct the inquiry said Conservative members are much exer-cised over the episode and summary pun B ishment of the offenders is demanded.

Officers Make Disclaims.

Officers Make Disclaims.

Officers of the Rock Island disclaim any responsibility for the movement. At the office of Daniel G. Reld, who, with ex-Jadge William J. Moore is acknowledged lender of the Rock Island group, it was said Mr. Reld was indisposed to-day. Another report said that he was entertaining a house party at his country home near here.

Judge Moore arrived from Chicago in the afternoon and affirmed what had been said earlier in the day, that, personally, he knew nothing of the excitement until told of it upon his arrival in New York. So much mystery and confusion surrounded the movement that anything like a clear explanation seems impossible at this time. At the brief session of the governors this afternoon several members who figured in the buying and selling were called before the committee, but no details regarding the preliminary investigation were made public.

Brokers Keep Silence.

Brokers Keep Silence.

Brokers Keep Silence.

Those brokers credited with executing the orders declined to throw any light on the subject. They will be called to testify later.

Stories purporting to explain the situation are numerous and conflicting. One theory was that an attempt at manipulation in the stocks had miscarried. According to this explanation, heavy buying orders were placed, but, through some oversight, the corresponding selling orders did not appear. The result was, following out this theory, that there was comparatively little stock for sale, and brokers who had charge of the buying orders had to bid the market up to execute them. If such was the case, the orders were destined to be "match orders," the principal subject of the recent investigation of the stock exchange instituted by Governor Hughes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.-Acting under he demands of labor unions, the state lepartment has called upon the American bassy at Mexico City to investigate sharply the incarceration of Conductor James A. The text of the note addressed to the embassy is not made public, although what purports to be a copy of the note was published in an afternoon paper today. State department officials delined to say whether it was authentic, but they acknowledged that the American diplomatic representative in the Mexican capital had been instructed to begin an immediate and thorough investigation of the matter and bring the request of the linted States government to the attention of the Mexican officials.

"Personally, I know little about the case, but I do know that the man in the case has not been imprisoned much longer, if as long, as many suspected persons under the same charge have been incarcerated in this country awaiting trial. It is entirely natural that friends of Cook should be anxious about him and should likewise exert every effort to have him brought to a speedy trial. The idea of an American pictured as helpless and subjected to persecution, languishing in a foreign fall, always will appeal to the tender hearted. It is altogether likely, however, that the Mexican law is taking its course." ts course Accused Union Man.

Cook, it is said here, was a member of the Brotherhood of Rallway Trainmen before he went to Mexico to work on railroads there. This organization is powerful and is closely allied with other railway labor organizations equally powerful. These labor bodies have brought pressure to bear, not only on the White House and on the state department, but also on congress. The delegation from Kansas, the state from which Cook halls, has taken up the matter.

At present the exchanges between the United States and Mexico are purely triendly and are being conducted through regular channels with a complete recognition of the laws governing the operation of railways in Mexico. Not the slightest friction, officials of fne department insist, has arisen as a result of the interclusinge, and a satisfactory solution of the problem is a matter of a few hours or days.

A coroner's inquest will be held tomorow, when sensational developments are not improbable.

Police officers tonight are working on the theory that young Friel was not killed in the house where his mutilated body was found, but was probably nurdered in Pittsburg and taken in a cab from the central portion of the city, transported across the Allegheny river in a skiff and placed in the descrited home.
